PARK RULES

We welcome everyone to Noblesville Youth Baseball's "Field of Dreams" facility. Our program is pleased to host your children, families, and teams at our ballpark. We want your visit to our park to be an enjoyable experience.

To ensure all players, coaches, parents, and spectators have an enjoyable and safe visit, Noblesville Youth Baseball has the following park rules that must be followed:

- For tournaments, there is a $10 parking fee per car that covers the entire weekend. Funds from this fee go directly into maintaining the facility.
- NYB is a tobacco-free facility. We are located on school property where smoking is prohibited. Violators will be asked to leave the facility.
- No scooters (manual or electric), skateboards, roller blades, roller skates, or bicycles allowed.
- No personal golf carts (electric or gas) are permitted.
- No sunflower seeds and no gum on any turf fields- This is a Zero Tolerance Policy. The Head coach will be ejected if players violate this rule.
- No pets allowed.
- No alcohol at fields, parking lots or on school property. This is a City Ordinance and enforced by the City, Schools by the Noblesville Police Department.
- No one under the age of 14 is permitted in the scoring towers.
- Grills are not permitted at the ballpark or in the parking lot at NYB. Grills are allowed in front of Hazel Dell Elementary.
- Please be sure to clean all trash from the dugout at the end of your game.
- Please clean all trash from the bleacher/spectator area before, during and after all games. Trash bins are provided throughout the park.
